

SYNERGX SYSTEMS INC. (NASDAQ SMALL CAP-SYNX) ANNOUNCES TRANSIT ORDER

SYOSSET, New York - March 7, 2006

Synergx reports that it has won a contract to upgrade the communication systems at the 59th Street/Columbus Circle subway station in Manhattan. The $400,000 contract includes upgrades to the fire alarms, public address systems, data and phone services and installation of closed circuit TV.

Synergx is also installing a communications system in the Jamaica terminal in Queens, used by the shuttle to John F. Kennedy International Airport and revamping the public address system for the Times Square subway station

Synergx is engaged in the design, manufacture, marketing and service of a variety of data communication products and systems with applications in the fire alarm, life safety, security and communication industries. For further information about Synergx please go to our website at WWW.SYNERGXSYSTEMS.COM

"Safe Harbor" statement under the Private Securities Reform Act of 1995: This release contains forward-looking statements, which reflect management's current views of future events and operations. These forward-looking statements are based on assumptions and external factors, including assumptions relating to product pricing, competitive market conditions, financial data, and other risks or uncertainties detailed from time to time in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These forward-looking statements represent the Company's judgment as of the date of this release and any changes in the assumptions of external factors could produce significantly different results.

Corporate Contact: John Poserina - Chief Financial Officer (516) 433-4700